Hurdles

price of creating the solftware the complexity of making a software that can do all of that on one page transition away from the old methods having the school actually impliemnt or start the project potential learning curve

Misc

what's the fallback in case of outages?

easy to keep track of all work

awesome

Features

submit homework

see grades and feedback

track due dates

submit lab work/classwork

able to text with professor instead of emails access class details, materials, and instructor information

Can send out emergency messages about a class being cancel or school being closed virtual meeting room

dark mode

Platform

website

mobile app

Account Management

access all of your account info

view schedule

track payments etc